*"We take care of everything.
Trusting the Chef means giving yourself
the freedom to discover flavors you might have never dared to order."*

Nature sets the pace

Our cuisine evolves with our producers' arrivals
and the Chef's daily foraging.

Wild plants are not a garnish:
they are the very identity of our seasonings

Allergies or dietary requirements:

Please let us know, we will adapt
our creations to your needs

Let's talk:

If you are disappointed by any detail, please let us know. We would much rather adjust your dish on the spot to ensure you leave happy,
than discover it later behind a screen.

Direct exchange is what the spirit of L'Atelier is all about.
